

Life During the Age of Absolutism

What do you suppose life was like in Europe during the 1600's for everyday people who lived under the rule of absolute monarchs? Below is a list of terms associated with that time period. We are going to examine the words and see if we can come up with hypotheses about what life was really like.

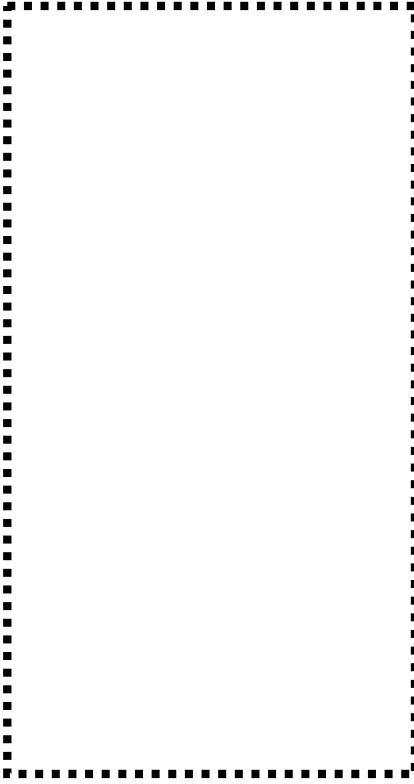

4 KINGS

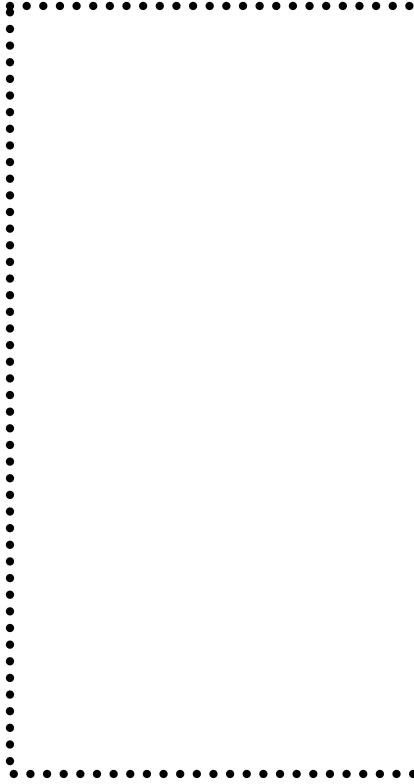

Prime Minister	Throne	Gold
Divine Right	Puritans	Silver
Spain	Oliver Cromwell	Spanish Armada
France	Palace at Versailles	Protestant
English Bill of Rights	Lavish	Centralized power
Cabinet	Taxes	Elizabeth I
Peace at Westphalia	Thirty Years War	Inflation
Nobles	Middle class	Guild
Peasants	Catholic Church	Prosperous
Debt	Philip II	Worship
England	Hapsburgs	Seven Years War
Parliament	English Civil War	Frederick the Great
Over-spending	Peter the Great	Europe
Czar	Glorious Revolution	Luxury
Louis XIV	Constitutional Monarchy	Arts
Revolt	Maria Theresa	Feast
Russia	Reign	Sun King
Ivan the Terrible	Warm-water ports	Nobility
Westernize	Mongols	Heretic
Boyars	Secret police	Inquisition
Serfs	Renaissance	Limited Monarchy
Charles I	Land-owners	Petition of Rights
Martial law	Imprisonment	Treason

Directions: After examining the words above, try and come up with six different categories the words might go in to. For example: geography, people, etc... Assign a category to each box by and write it on the line above the box. Place each term from above in an appropriate box below. You must place every term from above in a box. You may put the same word in multiple boxes.

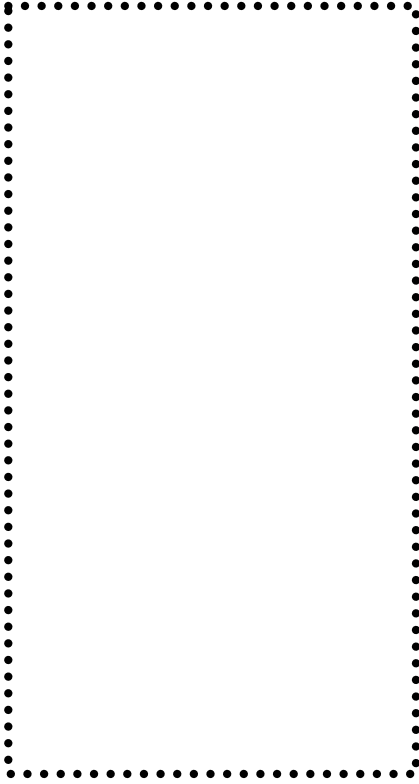

---

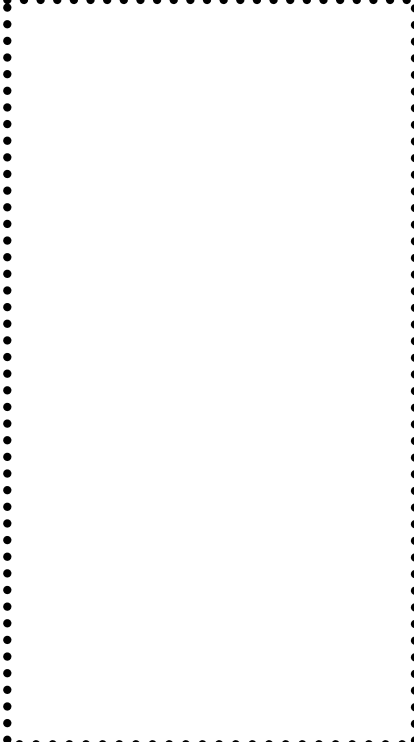

---

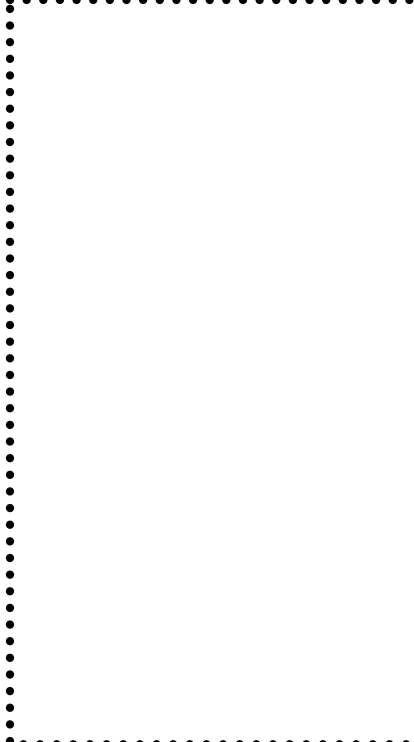

---

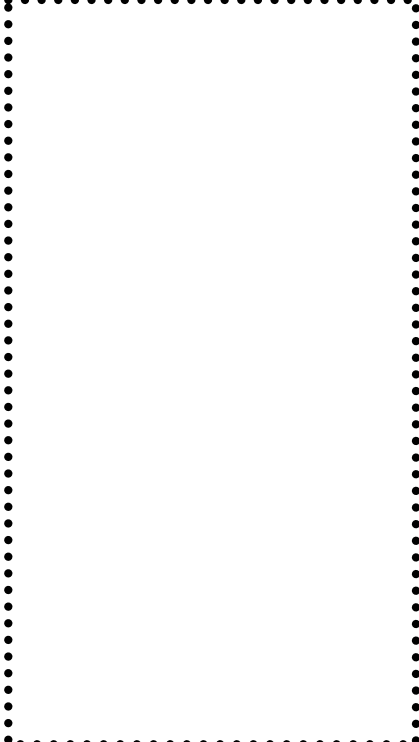

---

---

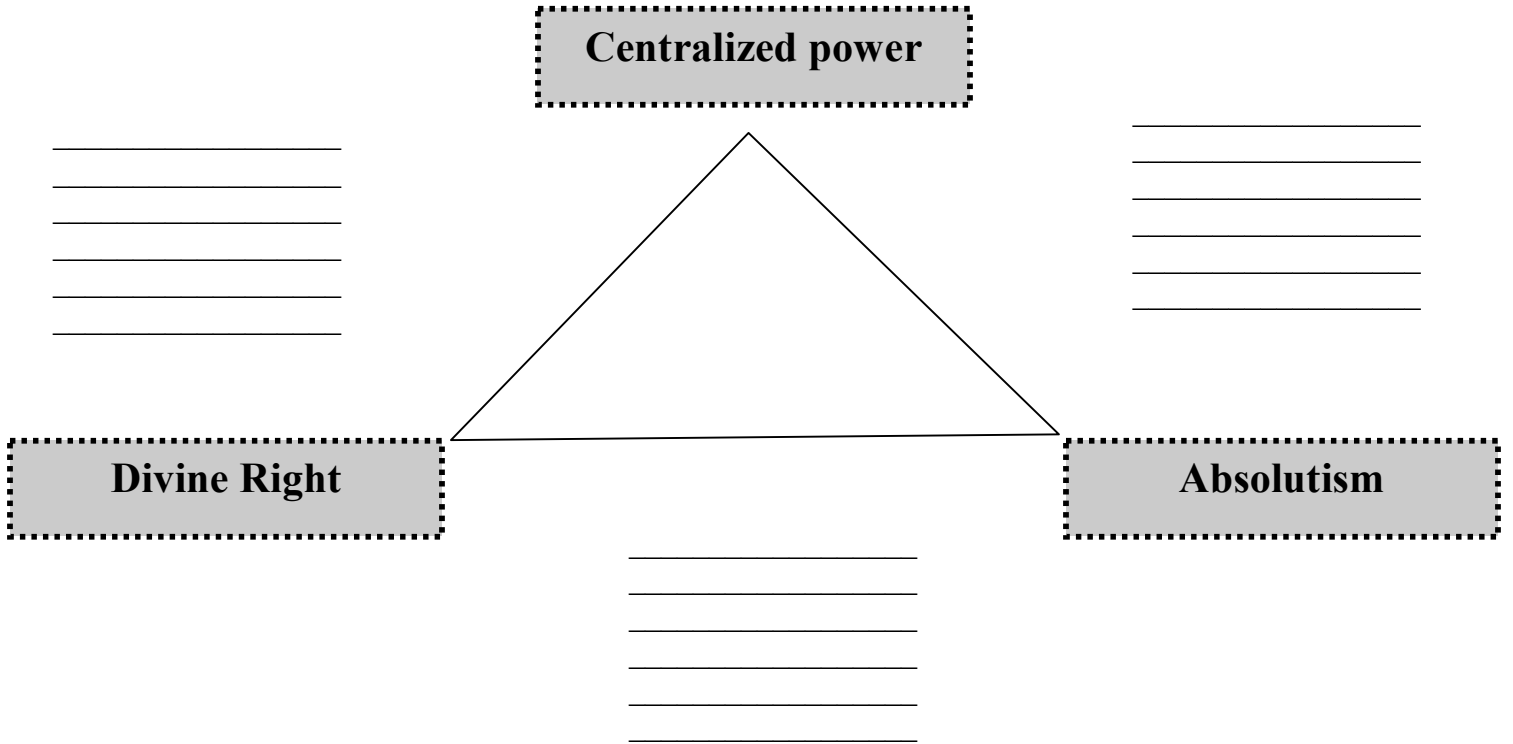

---

Hypothesis	Evidence For:	Evidence Against:
Example:
1.
2.
3.

Directions: On the lines provided, explain how each term is related to the term next to it.

Directions: In the boxes below, draw a picture that illustrates each term above.

